Paulina Johannah Eldridge WORTH, went to Nauvoo the spring of 1846 with five children, Eliza Jane, Lewis W., Julia Ann, Mary Elizabeth, and Joseph Z. Her husband, Zeno WORTH, had died 10 Aug 1845 in Bedford, Indiana. A letter from one of Paulina's daughters indicates that Paulina moved to Nauvoo because of the Mormon Church. She became ill and died there on 22 Mar 1847.

Elizabeth FORY was a member of the Mormon Church in Nauvoo, but moved to Davenport, Iowa where she married Levi DAVIS in the Congregational Church in 1848. Would like information of Elizabeth and Levi, or on any of the FORY family: in 1848 John and his wife lived in Davenport; Augustine and Gurdon were in New Orleans building a hotel; Maria was married and living in New York; Sophia died in 1847, leaving a young baby.

Also am interested in obtaining information and a photo of Jane Elizabeth Mayer RICHARDS, 4th wife of Samuel Whitney RICHARDS. Jane died in New Orleans while visiting family members.

Need information on any Latter-day Saint living in Pike County, Illinois between 1838 and 1846.
